BREAK IN ICE GORGE IS NEAR

Rivermen were taking all precautions Wednesday to strengthen moorings of craft in preparation for a break in the Ohio River ice gorge within 24 hours.

It was believed unlikely the ice would withstand pressure resulting Portsmouth, O., early Wednesday.

Full effect of the break at Portsmouth, rivermen said, would not be felt at Cincinnati before Thursday.

CHICAGO DIGGING OUT OF HUGE SNOW BANKS

Enteago, January 9-After nearly ee days, during which thousands n, women and children have snovered from morning till night to today still was struggling to free itself of the great drifts left by Sunday's blozzard, which tied up traffic to such an extent that the city practically was without milk for two days and faced a serious fuel famine.

Today, although many outlying streets still are impassable, the situation appeared brighter, and by another day it is thought the city will be in something like a normal con-igain Heads National Commission-Rreyfus Deules Rumor He Traded Mamaux For Wheat and Cutshaw.

Cincinnati, Ohio, January 9 - August Herrmann was re-eletced chair man and John E. Bruce was re-eleced secretary of the National Basebali Commission, at the annual meeting of the commission here yesterday.

Owing to the fact that only minmatters were to be considered by the commission, the interest centered in number of deals that were being atsame next season as they tempted by various big league clubs.

Early in the day a rumor from a well authenticated source had Brooklyn giving Zack Wheat and Cutshaw for Pitcher Al Mamaux, of Pittsburgh and a cash consideration.

Barney Dreyfus of the Pittsburgh club, when questioned concerning the umor, said: "It sounds good, but it is untru-

That's the only bad part of it." The rumar gained credence, however, owing to the large number of private discussions that took place between Ebbets and Dreyfus.

Another rumor that would not down but which likewise was give a official denial, was that Catcher Sny der, of the St. Louis Nationals, had been sold to the Pittsburgh club. Jac Hendricks, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, said:

"Snyder has not been sold to an body and there are good chances that he will be with the Cardinals whe the season opens."

To all appearances the much talke of deal whereby the Chicago Natio als would get Hornsby, of St. Loui has fallen through. President Wee hman, of the Chicago club, offere four players and an amount of mone reorted to have been $50,000, fo Hornsby, but this was turned dow by the St. Louis management. Weer man announced that this was his ver best offer, and that he was through

Herzog Traded to Braves

New York, January 8-The New York National League club announced last night that it had traded Second Baseman Charles L. Herzog, captain of last year's championship club, to the Boston Nationals for Second Baseman Lawrence Doyle and Pitcher Jesse Barnes.

The transaction closed a big three cornered deal involving the Chicago. New York and Boston clubs. Chicago recently sent Doyle and Catcher Wilfrom a movement of the gorge at son to Boston in exchange for Pitcher

Doyle returns to the club with which he won his greatest fame, as he played with the New York Nation als from 1907 until he was trained awha River, near Charleston, which near the end of the 1916 season, with two young layers-Hunter and Jack- per box only. there, also is exerting pressure on son-to Chicago for Henry Zimmerchampions of 1911, 1912 and 1913. Herzog now has figured in five different deals made by the New York club. He came to the Giants in 1908 and in 1910 Herzog and Outfielder William Collins were traded to Boston for Outfielder Beals Becker. In mid-season of 1911 New York got him clear the streets of snow, Chicago back from Boston in exchange for MAVSVII. Shortstop Al Bridwell and Catcher Hank Gowdy.

GERMAN LINES PENETRATED

Surprise Attack East of St. Mihlel Results in Victory for Petain's Men -Gen. Haig Indicates Allies Have Little Fear of Proposed Attack.

French troops in the Woevre have enlivened the virtual inactivity on the Western front by successfully completing a sortic into the German lines east of St. Mihiel. The German positions on a one-mile front were penetrated and 178 prisoners and some machine guns captured. After destroying the defenses and shelters, the French returned to their own
